SHUSHRUTI INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT STUDIES

INTRODUCTION

The Shushruti Institute of Management Studies celebrated the vibrant and joyous festival of Holi on March 25th, 2024. The festival, known for its colours and jubilant spirit, was marked with enthusiasm and unity, bringing together students, faculty, and staff for a day of fun-filled activities and cultural performances.

INAUGURATION

The Holi celebration was inaugurated by the Director/Principal, Dr. Chandrakala T M. In her address, Dr. Chandrakala highlighted the significance of Holi as a festival that promotes unity, joy, and the triumph of good over evil. She encouraged everyone to participate wholeheartedly and to embrace the spirit of togetherness that Holi represents.

MAIN EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

The Holi celebration at Shushruti Institute of Management Studies included a variety of events and activities, ensuring that there was something for everyone to enjoy.

1. Color Play
 - The highlight of the celebration was the traditional play with colors. Students, faculty, and staff gathered on the grounds to smear each other with vibrant colors, symbolizing the joy and camaraderie of the festival.
 - Organic and safe colors were used to ensure the well-being of all participants.
2. Music and Dance
 - Students danced to popular Holi songs and Bollywood tracks, adding energy and excitement to the celebration.
 - Traditional folk dances were also performed, showcasing the cultural heritage associated with Holi.
3. Cultural Performances
 - Various cultural performances were organized, including singing, dancing, and skits that depicted the legends and stories associated with Holi.
 - These performances highlighted the cultural significance of the festival and entertained the audience.
4. Games and Competitions
 - Fun games and competitions were organized, including a Holi-themed tug-of-war, balloon fight, and a rangoli competition.
 - These activities added an element of fun and friendly competition to the celebration.

CONCLUSION

The Holi celebration at Shushruti Institute of Management Studies on March 25th, 2024, was a grand success. The event was marked by high spirits, joy, and a sense of community.
